Move On Asia 2010 Single Channel Video Art Festival

(Move On Asia) is a single channel video art festival organized annually by the Asia Climate Movement to showcase video art by the pioneers and the future of video art in the 21st century. Each year, the festival takes place in a different host country and brings together artists from 10 countries with 50 video artists from across Asia. (Move On Asia) has created an array of productive discourse through exhibitions, seminars, and other public space encounters, making it a unique space for video art.

This year's theme is Sealed Time in Video Art, dealing with the experience of disaster, time, displacement, media time, and reflecting on the significance of creating time, history, and art in a contemporary and changing world.

Film: Ego trip, produced by Poon kan chi 2008

Duration:00:14:55

Introduction:

Ego trip 是一套以作者精神角度出發的主觀視覺旅行。由一個女生從住所約會朋友的下雨下午，連接到一對情侶因為下雨而無法出外，只好慢無目的地在房子內嬉戲。接下來，觀眾將會目睹一段關係如何在時間裏發生的變質．．．

Ego trip is a short film presenting the artists's subjective mental and visual travel. Starting from a rainy afternoon, a girl is going to meet her friends, connected to a couple staying at home because of the unconvinced heavy rain. The audience will witness how a relationship changes by time.
