Sponsored by the Artist Committee of China Cultural Management Association and co-organized by China National Art Magazine and Simcere Gallery, "Collision-Joint Exhibition of Outstanding Member Works of the Artists Committee of China Cultural Management Association" will be held in Beijing 798 Art District on August 27, 2016. The gallery is wonderfully presented. This exhibition is a large-scale joint exhibition of more than 20 outstanding artists from the Artist Committee of the China Cultural Management Association, with a total of more than 30 excellent works on display.

Today's contemporary art is a concept that continues to accumulate and spread. The same is true for the character of artists. They constantly self-discipline and self-discipline, and eventually break through and reshape themselves. In this process of continuous growth, the various kinds of wonderful art we see are not all kinds of art forms. The "collision" and "sublimation". In this golden autumn season, these more than 20 outstanding artists are all together, looking forward to "collision" with each other to produce delightful inspiration and brilliant sparks, and build an all-encompassing and colorful world for every art lover.

The exhibition will open at 15:00 on August 27, and the exhibition will last until September 2
